Applicant Full Disclosure Agreement

The applicant(s) are required to be completely honest and forthright with regard to representations made in all stages of the application process. Full disclosure is required by the applicant(s) of any and all proposed, projected or planned activities, services to be performed or business to be conducted on the realty described in the application process. Full disclosure includes, but is not limited to, representation(s) made by the applicant(s) to the Maury County TN Building and Zoning Department, the Maury County TN Board of Zoning Appeals, Maury County TN Regional Planning Commission, the Maury County TN Chief Legislative Body, and any other governmental entity or department of Maury County, Tennessee.

No intended use, preparation or disturbance of the realty described in the application nor construction or pre-construction activity may commence thereon and no activity, services be performed and no business may-be conducted thereon or proposed business to be performed thereon prior to approval thereof by all required governmental entities including, but not limited to, the entities heretofore referenced.

Any and all reasonably foreseeable future potential development by the applicant(s) of the realty described in the application must be disclosed at all stages of the application process prior to commencement thereof.

All activities and proposed activities, services to be performed, and business to be conducted on the realty described in the application must be fully disclosed by the applicant(s) throughout the application process and must be supplemented. Maury county governmental entities reserve the right to summon the applicant(s) to reappear before them for additional questioning, information and/or documentation, at any time.

The applicant(s) acknowledge(s) having fully read this document and fully understand the requirements contained herein.

I (We) affirm that the information I (We) provide on this application and that I (We) present before the Maury County TN Board of Zoning Appeals, the Maury County Regional Planning Commission, the Maury County Chief Legislative Body, and the Maury County Building & Zoning Department is true and complete. I (We) acknowledge and understand that falsified information or significant omissions may disqualify the applicant(s) and their application from further consideration during any stage of the application process or may be considered justification for voiding and vacating any prior approval of any governmental entity associated with any stage of the application process, even if discovery occurs at a later date after the application process has been completed and granted final approval by any Maury County governmental entity including the Maury County Chief Legislative Body.
