

HERO

Character Analysis

Shakespeare reveals his chractes in 4 ways: through what the chracters say to other characters in dialogue, through what the characters reveal about their thoughts through long speeches to the audience (soliloquies), through what other characters say about them, and through what they do - their actions!

	What the character says, does, or what others say about him	What this reveals about his character
Antony
Caesar
Brutus		