

WARNINGS

How seriously do you take horoscopes? Do they affect the way you act? If you were told in a horoscope that something bad was going to happen to you, what would you do? In groups, discuss your views.

If you were Julius Caesar, how seriously would you take the soothsayer's advice in Act I Scene ii, lines 12–24? Write a letter from Caesar to a magazine agony aunt asking for advice.

Swap your letter with that of a partner, and write a detailed reply to his or her letter.

Julius Caesar's Unlucky Stars

Now fill in one section of the chart below with the soothsayer's warning. Invent a symbol or image for this warning or superstition. Add an act, scene and line reference.

Keep this sheet to use later on with the play. Every time a warning or superstition appears in the play, fill in a section in the chart.
